THE JANUARY WOMAN'S HOME COM- PANION

One of the most interesting contributions to the January Woman's Home Companion is an article by Ralph Waldo Trine entitled "Actualizing One's Ideals" in which the author makes many helpful suggestions which the individual reader can apply in the conduct of his own life.

Other notable articles in the January Companion are: "Finding Happiness in Winter's Garden," by Frank A. Waugh;
"The Coming of the Kewpies," by Rose O'Neil; "The World's Greatest Paintings," by Laura Spencer Porter; and "The Importance of Good Health," by Dr. S. Josephine Baker. Dr.
Baker's article appears in the "Department for Better Babies." Fiction is contributed by Margaret Deland, Mary Heaton Vorse, Mary Hastings Bradley, Molly Elliot Seawell, Juliet Wil-bor Tompkins and Zona Gale.

U. S. ARMY SHOES

Men if you want to wear the best work shoe made just try one pair of Herman's U. S. Army Shoe. They have to wear good, if they don't, bring them back and we will give you a new pair. They are made on a last design by surgeons of the United States army, after studying the effect of various shoe shapes on the feet of thousands of soldiers in active service. Herman's U. S.
Army Shoes are the best made and are the biggest value of any shoe in the world. These shoes can be bought at Gulick's store.
Price $4.00.

A number of good boarders wanted at the Attaway Hotel.

The young man who idles his time away on the streets these long evenings instead of reading some good book or studying his lessons for school next day is not taking advantage of the opportunity he has to lay the foundation for an education that will be useful to him through life. And besides the idle boy is apt to form bad habits that will be a load on him for years to come and in all probability will blight his life for good. Boys need more or less recreation and exercise and must have it, but to idle away all their time is out of the question.—Sturgeon Leader.

Gulick's just received a shipment of new Christmas ties this morning and they are sure "Daisy's" too.

Mr. Markey, a representative of the Children's Home, of St.
Louis, is in Monett in the interest of the home. He has with him

Springfield, Dec. 17.—Pat Patterson, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses day night. Patterson was released from the county jail De-backache and pains in my head.

Nothing relieved me until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. As the result of using them, I am strong and well and no words can fully express my gratitude to them."
